Conn-Lederer Nuptials

A high noon nuptial ceremony at St. Philomena's Catholic Church on Saturday, Nov. 13 united in marriage, Miss Nadine Lee Cohn and Sgt. Lawrence W. Lederer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Conn, 1012 W. Flat St., Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Lederer of Laurelton, N.Y., who came to California for the wedding.

Mr. Conn escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a traditional wedding gown of white satin and Chantilly lace. Her veil was held by a spray of miniature roses and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Molly Black, in a rose brocade sheath and carrying pink carnations, was the maid of honor.

H. William Lederer of Burns, Ore. stood as best man and William A. Black of Riverside was usher.

Rev. James Cavanaugh officiated at the vow exchange as Mrs. P. Rafferty, organist, played the nuptial music.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which the newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Big Bear.

The bride is a graduate of North High school, El Camino College and the Flavio Beauty College.

Her husband is serving with the Armed Forces. The new home is in Lancaster.

Entertains Bridge Club At Dinner

An arrangement of holly and Christmas candles formed the centerpiece on the dining table last Friday evening when Mrs. Alma Smith entertained her bridge club at dinner at her home, 1614 Amapola.

YW Slates 'Playday' For Girls

Torrance YWCA is offering special holiday activities to make the holiday happier and more fun for everyone. To take care of the "restless" time of the year for little girls and to give mother more time to prepare for the holidays there will be a three week session of Saturday Creative Arts Playday for girls 6-11 years. The Playday will be held from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Dec. 11, 18 and Jan. 8.

This class consists of one hour each of interpretive dance, art, crafts and music. Special emphasis will be placed on holiday crafts and music. This class will continue after this special holiday session for those parents who wish their daughters to learn to express themselves creatively through lessons in art, dance and music. The staff for the Creative Arts playday are professionally qualified in their particular field.

The YWCA may be called for more information and registration.
